Charitable Gift Annuities

By supporting WWF-Canada through a charitable gift annuity, you can provide an immediate gift to nature while providing a secure income stream for you during your lifetime.

A charitable gift annuity provides you with safe, guaranteed income payments for life. In most cases, the annuity may be structured to be a return of capital so there is little or no tax paid on your annuity income. Charitable gift annuities generally provide a higher rate of return than typical investments such as GICs and Canada Savings Bonds. When a donation is made, WWF-Canada receives a portion of the gift immediately and then purchases your annuity from a well-respected insurance company.

A donor who is 72 years old gives $100,000 to WWF-Canada to purchase an annuity. At current rates, he/she will receive a guaranteed annual income of $6,000 for the rest of his/her life. This represents a tax-free rate of return at 6 percent. WWF-Canada receives an immediate gift of $40,030 and the donor receives an immediate tax receipt of $14,200.
