Frequently Asked Questions – The Panda Poster Challenge

What types of posters are we looking for?

We are looking for posters that:

1. Show us your creativity and that you had fun creating your poster! You can use any visual medium including digital, drawing, paint and text.
2. Show us what wildlife and conservation means to you!

How can I participate?

No purchase is necessary. Download and complete the Entry Form from the Schools for a Living Planet website contest page. Entry Forms must be completed and signed by a teacher or other school representative. To submit your poster, you can either:

- 1) Scan and email your poster with the completed Entry Form to schools@wwfcanada.org with the subject line “Panda Poster Challenge”. If your poster is too large to scan, photograph your poster and submit your entry as a high resolution photograph.

If the submission containing the Entry Form and poster is too large to be sent via email, it can be sent via We Transfer <http://wettransfer.com>. This is a free service for sending a file up to 2GB in size. You will be asked for an email to send your file to. Please send to schools@wwfcanada.org ; or

- 2) Mail your entry by post to:

Panda Poster Challenge, c/o Schools for a Living Planet WWF-Canada
245 Eglinton Avenue East, Suite 410
Toronto, ON M4P 3J1

Who can participate?

The Panda Poster Challenge is open to elementary school students 4 to 13 years of age who are Canadian residents, excluding residents of Quebec.

Children of employees of WWF®, 20th Century Fox® Films Canada or DreamWorks® Animation are ineligible for, and may not enter, the Panda Poster Challenge.

If you are a student, please talk to your teacher about participating on behalf of your classroom, or get your whole class involved!

What prizes are available?

There is one grand prize consisting of an exclusive private screening of Kung Fu Panda 3 for the grand prize winning entrant's classroom, a WWF Classroom Adoption kit, and DVDs of the first two "Kung Fu Panda" films for each student in the grand prize winning entrant's classroom. The approximate retail value of the grand prize is $5,000.

There is one runner-up prize consisting of a WWF Classroom Adoption kit for the runner-up prize winning entrant's classroom and DVDs of the first two "Kung Fu Panda" films for each student in the runner-up prize winning entrant's classroom. The approximate retail value of the runner-up prize is $1250.

When is the deadline?

Panda Poster Challenge entries must be received via email to schools@wwfcanada.org by 5 p.m. E.S.T on February 26, 2016. Posters must be received before the cut off time and must include a completed Entry Form. Mail entries must be post-marked February 26, 2016 and received by noon E.S.T. on March 4, 2016.

Entries that fail to adhere to these guidelines will not be considered.

Can I enter more than one poster?

You can enter as many posters as you'd like.

"PANDA POSTER CHALLENGE"
(the "Competition")

Official Rules

This Competition is governed by Canadian law. Entry in this Competition constitutes acceptance of these Official Rules. Neither Facebook® nor Twitter® is affiliated with this Competition and entrants completely release Facebook and Twitter from any liability arising from the Competition.

1. No Purchase Necessary. The Competition begins at 12:01 am (Eastern) on January 8, 2016.
2. The Competition is open to elementary school students 4 to 13 years of age who are Canadian residents, excluding residents of Quebec.
3. Children of employees of WWF®, 20th Century Fox® Films Canada or DreamWorks® Animation (the "Sponsors") are ineligible for, and may not enter, the Competition.
4. Entries in the Competition ("Entries"), including the posters submitted for judging ("Posters"), may be made by individual students, small groups of students, or classrooms. Individual students, small groups, and classrooms (each an "Entrant" and collectively, "Entrants") may submit as many Entries as they wish. There are no limits on the number of Entries by one Entrant (either alone or in combination with other Entrants).
5. The deadline for receiving Entries by email is 5 pm (Eastern) on February 26, 2016 (the "Competition Closing Time"). Any email Entries received by the Administrator (as defined in section 24 of these Official Rules) after the Competition Closing Time will be ineligible. Entries submitted by regular mail must be post-marked no later than February 26, 2016 and must be received by the Administrator by noon (Eastern) on March 4, 2016 to be eligible. Ineligible Entries will not be entered into the judging phase of the Competition.
6. Only Entries that comply with all entry instructions will be eligible and entered into the judging phase of the Competition.

7. A representative (the "Representative") of the Entrant's school (such as the classroom teacher or the school principal) must submit the Entry on the Entrant's behalf and by doing so the Representative, for the Entrant, agrees and accepts:
 - i. these Official Rules;
 - ii. that the Sponsors may publish the Posters both in print and online, including on their respective websites, and social media platforms (including Facebook and Twitter), and for publicity and marketing purposes; and
 - iii. that, subject to getting consents from applicable parents and legal guardians, the students associated with the winning Entry (the "Winning Students") may be invited to participate in publicity arising from this Competition.

8. Any personal information collected from an individual student by the Sponsors will be used solely for the purpose of administering the Competition and will not be published or provided to any third party without the prior written consent of the individual entrant's parent or legal guardian. Such personal information will be destroyed within thirty days after the prizes have been awarded.

9. All Winning Students will require the prior written consent of their parent or legal guardian to participate in or receive their prize, as applicable. By accepting the prize on the winner's behalf, the school confirms that it has obtained the consent of the child's parent or legal guardian to receive their prize.

10. To enter, complete the Entry form (available to download from www.wwf.ca/pandaposterchallenge). The Poster can be shown on a separate sheet of paper as long as the Entry form is attached to it. Completed Entries must be sent either:
 - i. by regular mail to

The Panda Poster Challenge
Schools for a Living Planet, WWF-Canada
245 Eglinton Avenue East, Suite 410
Toronto, ON M4P 3J1; or

- ii. as a digital scan by email to schools@wwfcanada.org stating 'Panda Poster Challenge' as the subject line.
11. If a file containing the Entry and Poster (each a "File") is too large to be sent via email, it may be sent via 'we transfer' <http://wetransfer.com>. This is a free service for sending a file up to 2GB in size. An Entrant using this service will be asked for an email to send their File to; in this case, please use schools@wwfcanada.org.
12. The Entry form must be completed in full, dated and signed. It includes fields for the teacher name, classroom grade(s), number of students in the class, telephone and email contact information, school name and school address. The Entry form must be attached to the Entrant's Poster.
13. The Sponsors take no responsibility for late Entries, or Entries not successfully uploaded.
14. Entries must be the original work of the Entrant(s) and not copied from any source.
15. The judging panel will select one grand prize winning Entry and one runner-up prize winning Entry from all eligible Entries. Posters will be judged based on the following criteria: 50 % for the creativity expressed in the Poster (which includes the Poster demonstrating that the students had fun creating it); and 50% for the originality and strength of the wildlife and conservation message conveyed by the students in the Poster.
16. The decision of the judges is final and in the absolute discretion of the Sponsors. No correspondence will be entered into with Entrants other than the winners.
17. There is one grand prize available to be won consisting of:
 - i. an exclusive private screening (the "Screening") of Kung Fu Panda 3 for the grand prize winning Entry for up to fifty attendees (provided all attendees are in the same class that submitted the grand prize winning Entry) at a participating theatre located closest to the school from which the grand prize winning Entry was submitted. The private screening will be organized and administered by 20th Century Fox Films Canada. At the Screening, the attendees will each receive one regular-size popcorn and one regular-size soft drink. The grand prize winning Entry's school will be solely responsible for transportation to and from the theatre and may be asked to sign a waiver associated with the Screening;

- ii. a WWF classroom adoption kit chosen by the teacher representing the grand prize winning Entry; and
- iii. DVDs of the first two “Kung Fu Panda” films for each student in the class that submitted the grand prize winning Entry (approximate retail value of the grand prize is $5,000).

18. There is one runner-up prize available to be won consisting of:

- i. a WWF classroom adoption kit chosen by the teacher representing the runner-up prize winning Entry; and
- ii. DVDs of the first two “Kung Fu Panda” films for each student in the class that submitted the runner-up prize winning Entry (approximate retail value of the runner up prize is $1250).

19. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, the Sponsors reserve the right to substitute any of the prizes for an alternative of equal or greater value.

20. The winner of the grand prize and the winner of the runner-up prize will each be contacted, via their respective Representatives (as defined in section 7 of these Official Rules), by email, telephone or mail. If a winner's Representative cannot be contacted after reasonable attempts have been made, the Sponsors reserve the right to offer the prize to another Entry selected in accordance with these Official Rules.

21. The Sponsors reserve the right to cancel the Competition without notice at any stage if it is deemed necessary in the absolute discretion of the Sponsors or where events beyond their control prevent proper administration of the Competition.

22. The Sponsors take no responsibility for any failure of the Competition website during the Competition or for any problems or technical malfunction of computer on-line systems, servers, access providers, computer equipment, software, failure of any e-mail, on-line, or Entry to be received by the Sponsors on account of technical problems or traffic congestion on the Internet or at any website, or any combination thereof including any injury or damage to an Entrant's or any other person's computer related to or resulting from playing or downloading any material in this Competition. Any attempt to deliberately damage any website or to undermine the legitimate operation of this Competition is a violation of criminal and civil laws, and should such an attempt be made, the Sponsors reserve the right to seek remedies and damages to the fullest extent permitted by law, including criminal prosecution. Entries are subject to verification and will be declared invalid if they are illegible, mechanically reproduced, mutilated, forged, falsified, altered or tampered with in any way.

23. These Official Rules and any disputes arising out of them shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Canadian law.
24. The administrator of this Competition (the "Administrator") is WWF-Canada, 245 Eglinton Avenue East, Suite 410, Toronto, ON, M4P 3J1. If there are any questions about the Competition, please contact the Administrator at schools@wwfcanada.org or by phone at 1-800-26-PANDA (72632).
